About Giclée

The term giclée is often used by artists, galleries, and specialist printers. It denotes high quality inkjet printing that uses fade-resistant, archival (pigment-based) inks, and archival substrates (for example watercolour or other art-quality papers).

Giclée prints are typically produced on specialized large-format, high resolution inkjet printers.

Artists often use giclée printing to make reproductions of their original artwork. That is the case with the works in this catalogue.

Key points:

- A high quality reproduction of an original painting in limited edition, signed and numbered
- Archival (i.e. pigmented) inks
- Printed on archival/art quality paper
- A print that, properly cared for, will comfortably outlive you and probably your children too
- The print density is similar to, possibly better than, traditional lithography
- Eight-colour print process ensures deep, saturated colors of a beautiful natural quality that retains the minute detail of color tints and blends

For more information about giclée refer to the article in Wikipedia.

Prices, Framing, Purchasing

The price depends on the size of the print. Most prints can vary from the size of the original painting down to a range of smaller sizes.

You also need to allow for the cost of framing.

Example: The Max, Brunswick St

Dimensions ¹	Size	Print	Frame ²	Total
84 x 112 cm (Original size)	Extra Large	$520	$450	$970
60 x 80 cm	Large	$440	$340	$780
42 x 56 cm	Medium	$370	$260	$630
30 x 40 cm	Small	$320	$200	$520

If you wish to purchase a print or make an enquiry please contact me. I can assist you with sizing, framing options and any other questions you may have.

² Frame prices are to within about ±$10, based on works framed for me and/or quotes by my framer
